

Hounslow Junior Brass Band

Over the past few weeks more than 40 children from Hounslow schools have been working hard to prepare for their first performance in the National Youth Brass Band Championships on Saturday 30th March in The Bridge House Theatre, Warwick.

The pupils all learn to play with Hounslow Music Service. They come from Crane Park Primary, Cranford Primary, Green Dragon Primary, Hounslow Town Primary, Isleworth Town Primary, Springwell Junior, St Mary's Catholic, Chiswick Primary, St Michael and St Martin Catholic Primary and Strand on the Green Primary Schools.

The Hounslow Music Service project is led by Assistant Head of Service Alan Goodall assisted by brass teachers Oliver Browne, Sam Eastmond and student ambassador Leah Davies (a student at Springwell Academy). It gives the borough's young brass players the opportunity to work with experienced musicians in a band setting, producing high quality performance opportunities.

Building on the success of this project, Hounslow Music Service is launching a Junior Brass Band which will rehearse on a weekly basis during term time.
